

Instruction Lesson 1

Alphabet and Pronunciation

Punctuation and Syllabification

Introduction to Nouns

BBG – Mounce Chapters 3-4-5
Long, G. [2006] p.17-25
JACT 1 Reader

- 3.1 Alphabet
- 3.2 Writing the letters – Workbook Exercise 3
- 3.3. Pronouncing Greek
  - [a] Introduction and use of JACT 01
  - [b] How to use the mp3's distributed
  - [c] OR People could use Mounce reading on Website
- 3.4 Breathing Marks
- 3.5 Pronounced diphthongs
  - [a] improper diphthongs – use of the iota subscript
  - [b] diaresis
- 3.6 Capital Letters [Headings in the New Testament]
- 4.1 Punctuation
- 4.2 Diacritical marks
  - [a] Diaresis
  - [b] Apostrophe
  - [c] Accents
- 4.3 Syllabification - Dividing up words into their sound parts
  - Some rules [See Long, Handout here p.17-19]

Vocabulary:

How words are listed

Glosses

Literal translation

Dynamic equivalent [See Long. 20-21]

Introduction to English nouns

Review of English Grammar

Parts of Speech 5.8-13

[a] JB Summary handout [f. BB02 PartsSpeech]

- 5.2 Inflection – the form of a word changes
- 5.3 Case – recognising the function of a word in the sentence
  - [a] Subject and Predicate
  - [b] Finding the Subject, the Direct Object, Possessives
- 5.4 Number – singular or plural
- 5.5 Gender – form of the word may be masculine, feminine or neuter
- 5.6 Natural gender – the gender of the object the word represents
- 5.7 Declension – a pattern of inflection
- 5.14 Inflection of verbs for the sake of exercises – use Vocab and Warm ups as the source for the exercises. English to Greek Exercise to add